

DONALD M. EPHRAIM

Donald M. Ephraim, an attorney and certified public accountant, is the president of the law firm, Ephraim & Associates, P.C. Mr. Ephraim graduated from DePaul University in 1952 with a Bachelor of Science in Commerce and received a J.D. degree from the University of Chicago Law School in 1955. He was admitted to the Bar of the State of Illinois in 1955 and was admitted as a CPA in the State of Illinois in 1953. Mr. Ephraim has been a member of the American Bar Association, the Illinois State Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association, the American Association of Attorney-CPA's, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Illinois Society of CPA's, and the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS).

He has served as Vice-President, Treasurer, and a Governor of the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of NATAS, as well as on a number of committees. He designed and implemented the current computerized accounting and reporting system used by the chapter. He also was the founder and driving force behind the chapter's current scholarship program. Mr. Ephraim was awarded the NATAS Governors' Award for 1993-94. He has served as Trustee on the national board of NATAS and was chair of the Constitutional Amendment Committee, which enacted the current constitution governing the National Academy.

Mr. Ephraim is a director and officer of numerous corporations and charitable foundations. Mr. Ephraim has practiced law and accounting in Chicago for over fifty years, with his practice concentrating in the area of representation of individuals (talent and management) in the media and entertainment industry. He is the father of three sons and has six grandchildren. One son, Eric, is a CPA and officer of a Chicago bank; two sons, Eliot and David are lawyers who practice with Ephraim & Associates. David Ephraim, is currently Treasurer of the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of NATAS.