

1972-1973 (Fifteenth Annual)

REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS

The Adventures of Coslo (WTTW), David Wilson, Producer
The Black Experience (WTTW), Gene Bunge, Charles Branham, Producers
Kup's Show (WMAQ-TV), Paul Frumkin, Producer

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

... And Replenish The Earth, June 6, 1972 (WMAQ-TV), Scott Craig, Producer
Open Air—Where Has All The Music Gone?, Dec. 10, 1972 (WTTW), Ken Ehrlich and Paul Fanning, Co-Producers
Portrait of an Election 1972, Jan. 19, 1973 (WBBM-TV), Franklin McMahon, Producer

NEWS PROGRAMS

Burglary: The Easiest Crime, Oct. 23, 1972 (WLS-TV), Jeffrey McGrath and Wally Miller, Co-Producers

INDIVIDUALS IN REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS

Marshall Izen, Creator, Performer, Writer, Set Designer, "The Adventures of Coslo" (WTTW)

INDIVIDUALS IN SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Ron Clasky, film and sound Editing, "Portrait of an Election 1972" Jan. 19, 1973 (WBBM-TV)
Engineering Team, "Made in Chicago" Feb. 24, 1973 (WTTW)

John Kennamer, Audio Mix, "Made in Chicago" Feb. 24, 1973 (WTTW)
Jim Stricklin, Cinematographer "... And Replenish the Earth" June 6, 1972 (WMAQ-TV)

INDIVIDUALS IN NEWS PROGRAMS

Bob Faw, Reporter, "TV2 News" (WBBM-TV)
Steve Lasker, News Cameraman (WBBM-TV)
Amatore Mazzacano, Cameraman and John Martin, Film Editor, "Olympic Diving Trials" Aug. 28, 1972 (WMAQ-TV)
Harry Porterfield, Reporter, "TV2 News" (WBBM-TV)

GOVERNORS AWARDS

James G. Hanlon, the late vice president and manager of public relations and advertising of WGN Continental Broadcasting Company who was a constructive, positive voice in the television industry...

Raymond A. Jones, for a career of 46 years dedicated to the performing arts...

Robert Lemon, for his contributions to the stature of television, in sales, programming and management and in participation in both industry and civic affairs are manifold...