

Jim Conway

Jim has been in Chicago broadcasting for over fifty years. His broadcasting milestones include: the first to announce, locally, the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor; the first to initiate the half-hour news format in 1960 on WGN-TV; the first to launch a morning talk show for adults in 1964; and the first to use a satellite to broadcast live from Rome to Chicago in 1967 for WLS-TV. In Town Tonight for WBBM-TV, Conway on Q for WMAQ-TV, Jim Conway News at Ten for WGN-TV, Jim Conway Morning Show for WLS, and Morning Show on WGN-TV, span a successful run from 1953 to 1972. A former Naval Aviator and retired Captain, USNR, Jim is currently a compiler of oral histories for the Museum of Broadcast Communications and President of Broadcast Veterans of Chicago.
