

Posthumous inductee Linda Mancuso was Senior Vice President and programming chief for the ABC Family Channel. She joined Peter Engel Productions as President after 15 years at NBC where she was Children's Programming V.P. and prime time production and series development executive. Before joining the network in Burbank, Mancuso began her broadcast career as an intern at WMAQ-TV, where she served roles in broadcast standards, local programming and production.