

Michael Torchia, "Torch" to most of us, has vast experience shooting, directing and producing TV news, commercial, industrial and magazine formats. Traveling the globe, he has worked with virtually every major broadcast outlet in the country. Having worked extensively with WLS program and news departments, Torch and two partners formed Pixel Brothers Productions. According to their clients, "if a picture is worth a thousand words, their work speaks volumes."