

Chicago/Midwest Chapter
National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences

2004 High School National Student Television Awards of Excellence

Category 1 News

Crystal Pillar Award to Jordan Gzesh, Deerfield High School, Deerfield, IL for “Warrior Wake-Up.”

Honorable Mention to Joey Burgess, Glenbrook South High School, Glenview, IL for “The Glenbrook South Report.”

Category 2 Arts & Entertainment Documentary

Crystal Pillar Award to Kyle Betts, Maine South High School, Park Ridge, IL for “Just.”

Honorable Mention to Patrick Christl, Maine South High School, Park Ridge, IL for “Susan.”

Honorable Mention to Lili Barsky, Deerfield High School, Deerfield, IL for “Barbie and Ken Extreme X.”

Honorable Mention to Sean Brown, Deerfield, High School, Deerfield, IL for “Columbus Day Mini Documentary.”

Honorable Mention to Alan Mellovitz, Deerfield, High School, Deerfield, IL for “A Town That Could Be Segregated.”

Category 3 Public Affair/Community Service/Public Service

Crystal Pillar Award to Christina O’Rourke, Glenbrook South High School, Glenview, IL for “Between the Lines.”

Category 4 Sports

Crystal Pillar Award to Artem Okulik of Libertyville High School, Libertyville, IL, for “Panico’s Selection to U.S. Army All American Bowl,”

Category 5 Technical Achievement

Crystal Pillar Award to Ken Gawne, Riverside Brookfield High School, Riverside, IL for “RBTV Promos Composite.”

Honorable Mention to Patrick Bresnahan, Batavia High School, Batavia, IL, “The Art Show Promo 2004.”

Honorable Mention to Artem Okulik, Libertyville High School, Libertyville, IL for “Prospect vs. Libertyville 7A Football.”

Honorable Mention to Mathew Livensparger, Main South High School, Park Ridge, IL for “Rose.”